

New Quadrant Partners have been awarded Best Law Firm (Tax & Trust) in the Wealth Adviser 2014 Global Awards.

Based on a peer review system, wealth managers and family offices, are invited to elect a “best in class” in a series of categories via an online survey.

Partner, Zoë Camp, commented “The fact that we have been recognised as a leading firm by the sector is testament to the contributions made by everyone at New Quadrant, particularly those who have daily contact with the investment management industry”.

April 2014