

PRESS INFORMATION

30 August 2012

New Quadrant Partners LLP - new appointments

New Quadrant Partners LLP (New Quadrant), the London based boutique private client law firm, has recently made new appointments with Jonathan Colcough and Kiran Vasudeva joining the firm.

Jonathan joins from Maitland in London as a Senior Associate and advises on tax, trust, estate and succession planning with a particular focus on international matters for individuals, family offices and offshore trustees. Prior to Maitland he was with Boodle Hatfield.

Kiran joins as an Associate from Irwin Mitchell LLP in the West Midlands where she gained extensive experience in Court of Protection and Personal Injury Trust matters. Her experience enhances New Quadrant's existing team, headed up by partner Vanessa Kemp, which specialises in advising in these areas. Kiran speaks both Punjabi and Hindi.

Commenting on the appointments Louise Stoten Senior Partner said:

“The appointments are a further great addition to our team and continue to help us increase our international and Deputyship offering. Our focus on our clients and our commitment to independence in advice is crucial and the experience that both Jonathan and Kiran bring continues to enhance the skill set within New Quadrant.”

- Ends -

For further information contact:

New Quadrant Partners LLP
020 7430 7150