FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Quadrant Partners Ltd - New Appointment

New Quadrant Partners, the London based boutique private client law firm, announces the appointment of Helen McGhee as a senior associate with the firm.

Helen was recently named Rising Star at the LexisNexis Taxation Awards.

Helen has spent over 6 years advising clients on a breadth of personal, real estate and corporate tax matters. Many of her clients are internationally mobile high net worth individuals and families with both a domestic and global tax presence; Helen advises on all aspects of her clients' tax affairs including employment and pension tax as well as more complex planning around the use of trusts and residence, domicile and remittance basis queries. She joins us from Squire Patton Boggs.

Helen also has a wealth of knowledge advising owner managed businesses on incorporation, succession planning and a variety of other tax issues related to private equity transactions. Helen also has a significant dispute resolution practice; negotiating and litigating with HMRC on a range of contentious tax planning and mitigation points. She has considerable experience in helping individuals and corporates to regularise their tax affairs under HMRC disclosure facilities.

Louise Stoten, Senior Partner said "We are delighted to have Helen joining us. Her experience strengthens our service offering and our team. Her knowledge and experience in clients' tax affairs will complement Ray McCann and I have no doubt they will be an outstanding team. This is exciting times for New Quadrant".
