

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Quadrant Partners Ltd - New Appointment

New Quadrant Partners, the London based boutique private client law firm, announces the appointment of Robert Smeath as a Partner with the firm with effect from 11th May 2015.

Robert who was formerly a partner with Clarke Willmott LLP specialises in lifetime tax and succession planning. His expertise includes advising clients with offshore connections and assets and those owning businesses. He regularly lectures on Inheritance Tax, in particular on the relief available to those owning agricultural and business property.

Robert is a full member of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners and Solicitors for the Elderly as well as holding a Diploma of the Personal Finance Society which gives him an insight in wider financial planning in conjunction with practising financial planners.

Robert commented on his role, "I am delighted to be joining NQP. The firm has true strength and depth with a genuine client focus. I was attracted to the firm by its friendly atmosphere and its dynamism to build on its flourishing practice still further."

Louise Stoten, Senior Partner said, "We are very excited to have Robert on board. The appointment is a great addition to our team. Our focus on our clients and our commitment to independence in advice is crucial and the experience that Robert brings continues to enhance the skill set within the firm."
