

PRESS INFORMATION

30 November 2012

New Quadrant Partners LLP - new appointments

New Quadrant Partners LLP ( New Quadrant), the London based boutique private client law firm, announces the appointment of Karen Marks as a Partner with the firm with effect from 3rd December 2012.

Karen who was formerly a partner with Maitland Advisory and previously a partner with Boodle Hatfield and LG advises on all aspects of personal tax, trusts and succession planning with particular emphasis on international matters. Her broad range of clients include entrepreneurs, international families, offshore trust companies and private banks. She is a CTA.

Karen commented on her role:

"I am delighted to be joining NQP. The firm has real strength and depth with a clear client focus. I was attracted to the firm by its friendly collegiate atmosphere and its dynamism to build on its flourishing practice still further."

Commenting on the appointments Louise Stoten Senior Partner said:

"We are very excited to have Karen on board. The appointment is a great addition to our team and helps to increase our international offering. Our focus on our clients and our commitment to independence in advice is crucial and the experience that Karen brings continues to enhance the skill set within New Quadrant."

- Ends -

For further information contact:

New Quadrant Partners LLP
020 7430 7170

Joan Major, CEO
joan.major@nqpllp.com