Vanessa Kemp
Senior associate
New Quadrant Partners
D.O.B: 27/09/1977

Vanessa is a senior associate at New Quadrant Partners, a boutique private client practice that was set up in June 2010, of which Vanessa has been a member since its inception. She has experience in all areas of tax and trust work for UK and cross border clients.

Vanessa has helped build the firm's and her own reputation in the specialist area of advising on personal injury trusts. Vanessa has recently established and continues to be involved in a new charity to commemorate Stoke Mandeville's links with the founder of the Para-Olympics.

Vanessa's specialism and experience in the field of personal injury trusts has been strengthened by a secondment to the Office of the Official Solicitor.
